UNIVERSAL DIVINE MOTHER "OM SRI MAHAMAYI"

PRANAMS to all the Divine Mothers! I like to share with EST readers the greatness of the Goddess Om Sri Mahamayi. Her form is unique, as displayed in the picture here. THE gracious Divine Mother, Adi Para Shakthi, has incarnated as Om Sri Mahamayi, to protect Her children from the present worldly maya and to console, guide & elevate them to attain their life-goals. The gracious Mother's blissful face blesses all Her children with abundant wealth, health, relationship, peace, happiness and eternal bliss.

Om Sri Mahamayi displays Conch, Ganga, Kalasha, Naga, Vishu, Valampuri, Jala, Aom hastam in Her arms and she appears like Lakshmi-Narayan, Shiva-Parvathi and Brahma-Saraswathi. She gives darshan in the pink lotus. She transforms all her devotees into blissful child state, by keeping them on Her lap. The bow & arrow in the hands of the child signify that any body who surrenders to Mahamayi, would definitely attain the Life goal. The entire nature in the background includes the divine plants Karpaka Vruksha, Banyan tree, Bilva, Rudraksha, Neem, Sandal, Banana, Coconut tree, Sugarcane, Basil, Turmeric, Parijata, etc & the divine-cow Kamadhenu and other gracious living beings, Mahamayi is lovingly looking forward to bless Her children abundantly.

Mahta Meru denotes the mystic presence of Her in all parts of the universe. Vibrations of the divine from the sky and being reflected by the gracious mountains. Sri Krishna's Panjasanya Conch and Shiva Shakthi's Valampuri Conch denote that the devotees are being transformed from ignorance to awareness.

The HANSA, the Swan, is the symbol to identify the good & bad deeds in the ocean of life. The eyes in the sky reflects that with Mahamayi's power will protect Her children all over the universe from negative karmas and lead them to a happy life. Yogini Jaya Raja Indira,
